APRIL 2020

“Set onsite of the former City Hall, the historic Lido House seamlessly blends classic Cape Cod-style architecture with nautically inspired details for a uniquely sophisticated, coastal style. Crafted with a definitive beach-house vibe, Lido House is Newport Beach’s favorite guesthouse for locals and visitors.”

Showing local community support of the Lido Isle Community Yacht Club Lido House plays an intricate part of the rejuvenation of the Lido Marina Village as well. For Lido residents the generated foot traffic is not always easy to negotiate during our daily travels on and off our island. While adjusting to the changes is challenging it is a small price to pay for improvement. I do think ‘the locals’ who frequent the Mayor’s Table for dining should receive free parking but until then perhaps leave a bit earlier and enjoy a lovely walk over the bridge and down the lane.

There are 130 stylish guestrooms, including five residence-inspired, tri-level private cottages, each individually curated by a local designer. If you are looking for a quiet and classy lunch venue pull up a chair at The Mayor’s Table, the on-site restaurant, which draws inspiration from the nearby Pacific Ocean to create seasonal seafood dishes or visit Topside, the only rooftop venue in Newport Beach, for a handcrafted cocktail. This addition to Newport Beach brings California beach style with a sophisticated Narragansett Bay vibe. If salt water isn’t your thing you can take a dip in the hotel’s pool, or rejuvenate the mind and body at Boost Spa.

Located at the portal of Lido Isle, Lido Peninsula, and Balboa Peninsula, Lido House is perfectly positioned to celebrate Newport Beach’s vibrant atmosphere, bustling marina and white-sand beaches.

Incredible, streamlined built-ins, circa 1953, possibly in Falcon Lunney's old room. ▶

Dorothy and her husband Henry "Hal" Lunney (1901-1991) are listed in the Newport Beach directory of 1954 as having lived at 235 Via Eboli with their son, Falcon (1935-1981). We are so lucky to have photos of their quintessential 1950s house thanks to the Getty Institute's fantastic archive of Julius Shulman photographs (and please look up Shulman's amazing portfolio documenting southern California architecture if you have not done so already).

The O'Hara/Lunney home's architect, USC-trained Theodore Pletsch (1901-1994), was especially active in the Pasadena area, and designed homes both modest and extravagant, but he did have a special knack for designing timeless ranch houses, such as the O'Hara/Lunney property. Enjoy this special look into a mid-century beauty of a house, and next month, we will explore Dorothy's fashion career in more detail. If you remember Dorothy or her husband, Hal, love to hear your memories at masonlido@gmail.com.

The Boy Scout Motto: BE PREPARED!

Hello Lido! This is your Troop 37 columnist Mason Richley Alexis. This month, Scouts got to practice using the motto "Be Prepared" in their daily lives, thanks to the coronavirus. Emergency plans and stocking up food are a small part of being prepared for the worst. However, on the bright side, we had our swim test, which provides an opportunity for Scouts to earn the Swimming Merit badge. Conveniently, this is an Eagle-Scout required badge. To pass the swim test, participants must learn how to tread water, save a drowning individual, and fill a pair of pants with air to turn them into a life-vest. Furthermore, we have been preparing for the National Camporee. At this event, our whole Troop will get the chance to be assessed on how well we coordinate, how clean our camp is, and how we work together as a unit. Overall, the month of March was filled with boundless opportunities to practice Boy Scout teachings. Thank you for reading this article, and we hope you tune in for next month's article.

Home Security Tips for Everyday

So much for winter... Spring is in the air and the days are longer. More time to be outside and enjoy your day and evening. As a reminder, I wanted to provide the following home security tips from the Newport Beach Police Department. Of course things will vary depending on your personal lifestyle. Here are the basics.

- Always lock your windows and doors when you go out, even if for only a few minutes. Second story windows & doors should be secured as if they were on the first story.
- If you return home and find your pedestrian door that leads into your home locked, and you are certain that you left it unlocked, DO NOT GO INSIDE! Call 9-1-1 ~ Burglars often lock this door to slow down a victim, allowing the burglar extra time to get out of the home before the resident enters.
- If your home is equipped with an alarm, always activate it even if you're only going out for a short walk.
- Consider adding a motion sensor in your master bedroom/bathroom, which will activate the alarm if someone comes in through a glass window or door without opening it.
- Always keep your front and rear porch lights on from dusk to dawn and use motion detector lighting along the sides of your home or areas with little foot traffic.
- Use timers on indoor lamps to give the appearance that you are home.
- Adjust window coverings for optimal privacy while maintaining good visibility outside.
- Assess whether or not a window can be easily accessed from a tree, balcony, roof, wall, or with patio furniture and adjust your security plan accordingly. Ladders should be stored inside or locked to a stationary object.
- If your garage door has a remote shutoff button on the wall-mounted control, located in the garage, consider locking the door nightly. This will prevent your garage door from being opened remotely.
- If you are not in your garage/in transition, please close your garage door. This includes while you are at home. Do not provide any visual notation or temptation by the criminal element.
- If you have a safe, make sure that it is properly bolted to concrete so that it cannot be easily removed.
- Always close and lock your safe and never leave a key or combination out or in an easy to find location (i.e. office, nightstand, etc.).
- Remove items from your vehicle(s) and activate your locks/alarm.
- When you leave on vacation, remember to call the Police Department for a "Vacation Check" at 949-644-3681. Also, ask a trusted friend or neighbor to pick up your newspaper and mail while you are away.
- Always lock your bicycles with quality locks (e.g. steel shackle locks) while out and about. Double down and use a cable lock as well to make it more difficult. Electric bikes are a high target. There is an app called 529 Garage to register your bike.

Finally, report all suspicious activity by calling the Newport Beach Police Department non-emergency dispatch line at 949-644-3717. Obviously, in a true emergency, call 911. Please be as detailed as possible.

Have a great April! Be safe and Happy Easter!

How to SURVIVE IN YOUR CAR during an EARTHQUAKE

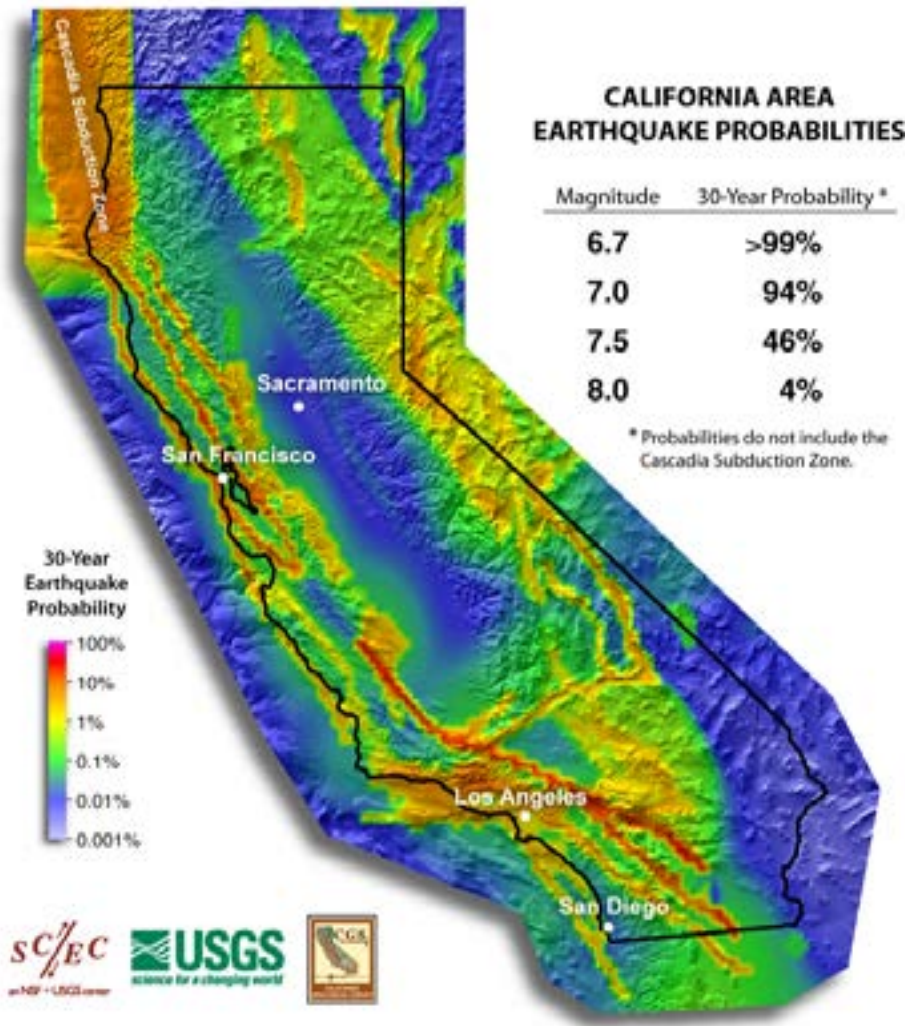

In Southern California, we spend a lot of time on the road. Some of us may be in a car when an earthquake happens. Here are some AAA recommendations:

PARK YOUR CAR

1. If you are driving when an earthquake strikes, pull over on the shoulder of the road. To avoid being struck by other motorists, signal and turn on your hazard lights. If you are on an overpass, wait until you are on solid ground before you stop.
2. When you pull over, find a spot where your vehicle will be most safe from falling debris.
3. If you are driving on an elevated road, park your vehicle away from the expansion joints because concrete slabs could fall off their supports during the earthquake.
4. After you park your car, turn the engine off immediately. Damage to your vehicle could create a situation where your car catches fire or even explodes.
5. After you've turned off your engine, engage your emergency brake. This should keep your car from rolling backwards or forwards if the ground becomes un-level..

WAIT FOR THE EARTHQUAKE TO END

1. Turn your radio to a news station for information about the earthquake's intensity and epicenter, relevant evacuation routes, rescue efforts, and instructions for people hurt or trapped by the event.
2. Even if the shaking has subsided, stay in your vehicle and assess the situation. If the earthquake was minor and you think you can safely drive away, do so – but be careful. When assessing the situation, pay attention to:
 - o downed powerlines.
 - o the condition of the road.
 - o whether other people are getting out of their cars.
 - o if you smell gasoline or natural gas.
 - o whether your vehicle is damaged or not.
3. If you are injured or trapped in your vehicle, alert others immediately. You can do this by waving to people, shouting, or using a noise-making device from your survival kit.
4. Whether you are in the middle of an earthquake or afterwards, exit your car immediately if you smell gasoline--your car could catch fire or even explode.
5. If you are near water and hear a tsunami alert, leave your car and run to the nearest large and tall building. You'll likely be safer doing this than trying to flee in your vehicle. When you get to the building move to at least the second or third floor.

GEARING UP for Spring and Summer Sailing

Hello LIYC, here's what we have coming for you!

Koll Spring Dinghy Regatta – April 19th

Our first LIYC-hosted regatta of the year is just around the corner! Registration is up on the LIYC website, so don't forget to register yourself or your sailors! The Koll Spring Dinghy Regatta is April 19th and we need volunteers to make it happen – open positions include Race Committee, snacks, and more! It is a great way to get more involved at the yacht club, and to learn more about sailing. You don't even need to have a sailor in the program to volunteer. Please contact jthompson@liyc.net if you're willing to help!

UPCOMING REGATTAS/CLINICS

CISA Clinic	Apr 2-5	ABYC	Application (Nacra 15, I420, Radial, 29er, Formula Kite)
LBYC Team Race Challenge	Apr 4-5	LBYC	CFJ (Boats provided)
Koll Spring Dinghy Regatta	Apr 19	LIYC	(CFJ, Sabot)
PCISA Team Race Champs	Apr 25-26	NHYC	CFJ (High School)
Balboa Advanced Sabot Clinic	May 16-17	BYC	Application (Sabot)

We have some amazing regattas and clinics approaching in the coming months. The CISA clinic is a high-level clinic with some of the best sailors and coaches in the country. As sailors move up into lasers and double-handed boats, this clinic would be my first suggestion to really refine your racing skills. The BASC clinic is another valuable experience that is specifically designed for sabot sailors in the harbor.

This time of year is particularly exciting as my favorite style of sailing begins to ramp up! Team racing is a staple of high school and college sailing, and happens at a fast-enough pace to make spectating a thrill! The qualifier for the high school national championship will be hosted by NHYC on April 25th and 26th, and will either be sailed in the turning basin or right off the Lido dock. Watching is the best way to learn if you're a beginner, so I encourage everyone to come support the local teams. LIYC coaches Ian Wells and Vivian Bonsager will be sailing alongside LIYC junior sailor Ethan Simpson for the Newport Harbor High School team; let's cheer them on!

SUMMER SAILING

Summer is right around the corner and we've been hard at work preparing registration, coming up with fun social ideas and gathering a great team of coaches for this year's program! Keep an eye out for our fantastic coach bios and headshots in next month's Islander.

I also want to highlight our brand-new Jr. Mariner's Program. This class will replace the Adventure class as the non-racing class for all ages! The class is designed to teach students about safe, adventure-style sailing with a heavy dose of fun. It will focus on safety procedures, trip planning, predicting and preparing for different weather conditions, and so much more. The aim of this class is to be informative and quite possibly eye-opening!

Summer registration is online, so don't forget to register your sailor now – Space is limited, so sign up today to ensure your spot! Register at www.liyc.net.

I wish you fair weather! — Jack Thompson

Junior Sailing APRIL SAILING!

In big news for our sailors, Tuesday Night Flights are coming back for July! Every Tuesday evening in July, the Lido Isle Yacht Club Junior Board will be happily hosting these at our yacht club. The Junior Board is working with the senior board to see if we can open the snack bar, making it a festive Taco Tuesday for our sailors and spectators. We encourage all potential sailors; young, old, experienced, novice, from our club, and from others to come join us.

On the high school sailing front, the 2020 Gold Pacific Coast Championship and the 2020 Silver Pacific Coast Championship are being held on April 18-19, 2020 at the United States Sailing Center Long Beach. After that, we have 2020 Team Race Pacific Coast Championship on the 25th and 26th of this month. All of the sailing teams in the bay are working hard to qualify to compete against other teams all over the country in the upcoming high school nationals. Good luck everyone! Sail fast and fair.

“Antivirus”

Business as usual.*

As a startling virus limited to one city in China just weeks ago, we are now living through a global human experiment. Opinions aside, Coronavirus is pretty much affecting everything indefinitely. It's strange. It's uncomfortable, yet it's reality for awhile. As I finish this, the NBA announces a suspended season. Tom Hanks. Wow. Wash your hands and try to avoid leaving the island at all costs. That's my advice. I am also not a doctor. Stay safe.

The tradition of these Mag Mondays is one of celebrating the good times, which is half about substance as it is attitude. We made the most of surrounding unknowns and gave it hell. For our St. Patrick's Day celebration we had five-time repeat host Mike O'Shea, whom after two cancelled flights was able to fly-in during the actual event (!!) along with Tim Fernandez, our chef of a great Irish meal. We also had Bob Winters and John Schlegel play a big part in getting ready to host fifty guys. Of course we can't forget wine; Len Davis chose a few cases which were enjoyed. That might be an understatement. Next month I'm rolling out the "added part" of this article. Simply, it's that I ran out of time due to searching for available Hand Sanitizer.

ANTIBES (on-teeb) Cap Antibes, really, that sybaritic French resort of Belle Epoque villas on the Riviera, between Cannes and Nice. For those of non-Garlic origin, pronunciation may require some practice, but as Professor Henry Higgins pointed out, "The French don't really care what they say, actually, just so they pronounce it properly." So, watch it! F. Scott Fitzgerald and Zelda loved it there – and could probably pronounce it properly – and the ambience of this charming resort is captured in the opening chapters of Tender is the Night, written there in 1925.

BARCELONA No pronunciation problem here. A port city dating to the 4th century Roman times and the capital of the province of Catalonia, where both Spanish and Catalan is spoken. Miro and Picasso completed many of their works here. (Picasso liked to stay at the Hotel Ritz on the Gran Via, with an adjoining suite for a larger than-life statue of a horse.) Fiercely independent, Barcelona was one of the last areas to fall to Franco during the Spanish Civil War.

CORDOVA (cor-do-bah, with the accent on the first syllable) A Spanish city in the province of Andalusia, about 250 miles south of Madrid. A Roman colony in 152 B.C. and later a base for Pompey during the civil war against Julius Caesar. The birthplace of Seneca. Captured by Moors in 711 and rebuilt as the capital of Moslem Spain. Home of Spain's greatest bullfighter, Manolete. Famous for its flamenco dancers, cordovan leather, olive groves and vineyards.

DIJON (dee-zbon) The historic capital of French Burgundy, famous for its mustard.

EBOLI An Italian town just east of Salerno.

FERMO (fair-mo) The ancient Roman city of Firmum. An Italian city east of Florence a few miles inland from the Adriatic.

FIRENZE and FLORENCE An alphabetical redundancy. Firenze is Italian for Florence, which was founded in the first century B.C. as a Roman colony. It was the center of Renaissance Italy and home to Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, Dante, Machiavelli, Botticelli, and Galileo. Boccaccio wrote The Decameran, E.M. Forster wrote Room with a View and D.H. Lawrence wrote Lady Chatterly's Lover while in Florence, one of the world's most beautiful cities set in the Tuscan hills of vineyards and orchards. Gucci, Pucci and Ferragamo gave us Italian chic from Florence.

GENOA Genova in Italian. Founded in the 5th century B.C. and became a major Roman station on the road to the western provinces in the 3rd century B.C. Later occupied by Saracens, French and Austrians. A major seaport of northern Italy and the birthplace Columbus, known for its many Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque bell towers – and excellent seafood.

GRAZIANA A cape on the southern tip of the small Italian island of Filicudi in the Tyrrhenian Sea north of Sicily.

HAVRE (ahv with a barely audible R sound at the end) Actually, Le Havre de Grace in French – The Haven of Grace. A port city in Normandy across the English Channel from Portsmouth, England.

ITHACA A Greek island in the Ionian Sea where Odysseus's wife Penelope waited for him to return home from the Trojan Wars. (Things were not all that great when he finally got home.)

JUCAR (hog-car) A river in Spain, where presumably the rain falls mainly on the coastal plain through which it flows before it empties into the Mediterranean south of Valencia.

KORON You can pronounce this one anyway you want because no one seems to know where it really comes from. Early writings on the subject have related it in some way to the Koran, the Islamic scriptures. Some claim it refers to the Greek town Koroni on the Gulf of Messenia at the southern end of the Peloponnesian Peninsula. Since we are dealing here with geography and not holy writ, I would cast my vote for the latter.

LORCA A small city in eastern Spain near Cartagena.

MENTONE (mahn-tahn) Menton is a small, quaint resort on the French Riviera, just east of Monte Carlo next to the Italian border. (I don't think they have any viaducts there.)

NICE (neese) One of the resorts on the French Riviera. The famous Blue Train of the Orient Express used to run between Paris and Nice bringing the rich, the famous and the royal of Europe, (including Queen Victoria, and Edward VIII before he ran off with You know Who), to stay in places like the Hotel Negresco with its $2 million Baccarat crystal chandelier and Gobelin tapestries.

NORD No great mystery here, except that the D is silent. It is French for north, as in Etoile du Nord, (The North Star), the famous pullman train that ran from Paris to Amsterdam, while the Train Bleu was running to Nice. It also means north in Italian.

ORVIETO (ore-vee-et-toe) An Italian city about half way between Rome and Florence, boasting some of the best white wine in Italy and beautiful frescos by Signorelli in its 13th century cathedral.

PALERMO Sicily's capital and major port. Founded by Phoenician traders in the 8th century B.C., ruled by Carthage in the 5th century B.C., by Rome in the 3rd century B.C. and later by Normans, Hapsburgs and Bourbons. Liberated by Garibaldi in 1860 and became a part of Italy.

PIAZZA Italian for plaza. The central area of Lido was originally intended to be a shopping plaza, thus Piazza Lido and, in case you never noticed, Piazza Genoa, the circle next to the boat gardens on Via Lido Soud. The early developers had no way of knowing, of course, that future generations of children would refer to this as the Pizza.

QUITO (kee-toe) Who knows about this one? Quito, of course, is the capital of Ecuador. That's not exactly Mediterranean but at least it's Spanish, and if our mystery street namer looked in a good gazetteer under Q, there wouldn't be much to choose from anyway. Things like this happen when you get hung up on the alphabet.

RAVENNA A walled city on the Po River near the Adriatic in northeast Italy that rejoices in some of the finest mosaics in Europe. Probably founded by Etruscans in the 15th century B.C. During Roman times its port could accommodate 250 ships. Dante wrote The Divine Comedy, while living in Ravenna.

SAN REMO A resort town on the Italian Riviera, just east of the French border.

SOUD (sood) The French for south is sud, as it is in Italian. The Spanish is sur as a noun and an adjective, but sud as a prefix. Who knows, perhaps the spelling was changed to avoid confusion with the honorific sir, or the thud of a sud falling on the ear without the O. Naming streets is not for sissies, you know, and sooner or later decisions must be reached on these matters.

STRADA Italian for roadway or street. Community planners would probably call them greenbelts today. They all have names, you know. With the exception of the Strada Central, they all take the name of the Via to the west.

TRIESTE Seaport in northeast Italy on the Adriatic and home of the early Hapsburg dynasty.

UNDINE History books and gazetteers don't mention this one but the dictionary says it's a water nymph. I don't have any difficulty with this, but considering the state of the water in our bay, I doubt if she's hanging around Lido these days.

VENEZIA (ven-ayt-zee-a) Italian for Venice, an important city-state in renaissance times, from which Marco Polo journeyed to the east seeking trade with China. Eastern terminal of the Venice-Simplon Orient Express and home of the famous Cipriani Hotel, the Piazzo San Marco, Harry's Bar (Hemingway's favorite watering hole) romantic gondolas and, of course, canals. One must learn to deal with the canals. The late Robert Benchley, on assignment in Venice, cabled his editor in New York upon his arrival: "Arrived Venice Streets full of water please advise."

WAZIERS Spanish, French and Italian are not heavy on the letter W, so most people think that this may come from the Turkish word Wazier or Vizir, a ruler or minister. Could be, I never argue with a Turk.

XANTHE Xanthi in Greek. A city in northeastern Greece near the Turkish border.

YELLA Early reports on the subject of streets that have appeared in the Islander over the years have equated Yella with an obscure tribe of that name in India, but that doesn't make much sense to me considering the Mediterranean concept of the original developers. There is a small Spanish town northeast of Madrid called Yelo, and until future scholarship throws some more light on the subject, I'll go for the small Spanish town.

ZURICH Swiss city founded by prehistoric Helvetic Celts and conquered by Rome in 59 B.C. for a customs post, presumably in anticipation of a brisk trade in Rolex watches.

Moving slightly off island, we have VIA OPORTO, Porto being a Portuguese seaport famous for its Port wine, and VIA MALAGA, a Spanish port city north east of Gibraltar on the Costa del Sol. Last but not least, we have VIA IRENE, a memorial to the late Irene Hardage for her efforts in establishing the footpath on the north side of the Lido Bridge to safely provide three separate bridgeways for automobiles, bicycles and pedestrians.

Regretfully, in light of increasing concern about community health at social gatherings and the potential lack of participation, LIWC is cancelling the Bunny Party that was scheduled for Saturday, April 4th.

The Spring Social will not be held on April 2nd as planned. The Social is being postponed indefinitely at this time, also out of concern for the health of our members.

Backstage Tour Planned

We are still planning to make the Wednesday, May 6th, trip to Laguna Beach for a very special backstage tour of the Pageant of the Masters and lunch, so mark your calendars for that date. Bus transportation will be provided. Watch for email/flyer signup information.

A Royal Tradition

King Edward I of England may have contributed to the tradition of decorating eggs to celebrate Easter. In the 13th century, Edward I ordered 450 eggs to be colored and decorated with gold-leaf. They were presented as Easter gifts to the rest of the royal household.

Come out and enjoy a beautiful afternoon at the BARCELONA tennis court hitting a few balls, relaxing and experiencing the friendship of your neighbors. During the reconstruction of the San Remo park, the SOS continues to be held on the fabulous Barcelona court and everyone is enjoying the intimate setting. The APRIL LITC SOS will be held between 12 and 4pm on Sunday, April 19th. The SOCIAL ON SUNDAY will have a lively spirit, wonderful food and fine refreshments. If you have yet to participate in a LITC SOS – the time is now! Eat, drink and socialize while participating in some mildly competitive, friendly tennis with an emphasis on fun. If you don't wish to play in this very social format, no problem, just come out, feast away and enjoy some camaraderie with your neighbors. Simply show up at the court with (or without) your racket, it's an easy way to have a bit of fun. Play as much or as little as you'd like. Please grab a friend or family member on the way over. If you are considering joining the LITC for the first time, this is a great way to give it a test drive. The SOS is a monthly event, held on the third Sunday of each month, hosted by the LITC and all members plus their guests are welcome. Doubles and mixed doubles plus some mixed-up doubles are played throughout the day. A special thanks to Frank and Donna Martell for hosting the February SOS.

Pickleball/Basketball Reservations

@ Via Jucar Side Court

More and more residents are using the Via Jucar side sport court for pickleball and basketball. In order to help relieve the conflict when the court is being used for either basketball or pickleball, the Board of Directors has agreed to have a trial sign-up for six months. This will allow the Board to monitor whether it would become beneficial to have a reservation system in place. As of March 7th, those interested in using the Via Jucar side court will need to contact the LICA Management office at 949 673 6170 to reserve the court. There is not a charge for the reservation and you may reserve the court for 1.5 hours. If you would like to play at the court without a reservation, you may do so; however, if there is a reservation than you will be expected to relinquish the court to those who have reserved it. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

PLEASE GROOM YOUR PETS AT HOME!!!

This is a photo of the Barcelona tennis court entry. Let's value our precious resources on the island and be considerate of all residents.

LIDO'S VALUABLE RESOURCES Use Them Properly

Please respect our facilities and use them for what they are intended to be used for. The basketball/pickle ball court and backboard areas at Jucar are not to be used for other activities such as personal training. There has been damage to both areas from equipment used in personal training sessions. If you see any inappropriate use of the Lido facilities, please call the LICA management at 949 673 6170.

Take advantage of one of Lido's best assets, our fantastic tennis facilities and professional instructors. Tennis lessons are available with USPTA certified pro Margie Mateljan and her assistants Robbie Reenan and Mike Lindsey. The staff is available for any type of instruction you are looking for. They teach private and group lessons. Please contact Margie 949-233-5670 if you are interested. Sign you or your child up today. All levels are welcome!

Tennis Tip:

Use mini-tennis as your warm-up. This allows you to slow down your strokes and get a better feel for the ball. Both you and your partner should stand in the middle of the service line and rally. For better consistency, try to hit the ball at waist height and land your shots halfway between the net and your partner. Keep the rally going and maintain good habits. Stay light on your toes and keep your feet moving. Gradually work your way back to the baseline.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS PRESENT:

David Rahn, Chairperson and Board Member

GUESTS:

NOT PRESENT:

Past Chairperson

Dennis O'Hern, LIYC

Activity Report:

The meeting convened at 4:00 PM

San Remo Park Project: The MCIC members heard an oral summary of the progress to date. Items discussed were:

- CERT/Garage Building: There is an issue on the size and design of the doors in the CERT building that is delaying stuccoing the building. When the door and frame issue is resolved plastering will occur over a 3-5 week time period.
- Demolition: All demolition is complete.
- GreenScreen Fence Installation between 128 Via San Remo and the Park:
 - The fence materials have arrived and are scheduled to be installed starting on February 26.
 - The shared fence agreement has been signed by the owners of 128 Via San Remo and LICA.
- Electrical Service Issue: LICA and our contractor are making progress checking off items on the SCE checklist of activities. We still don't have a date for the new service line to be installed by SCE.
- Estimated Completion Date: Delays in receiving construction materials and scheduling with SCE and So Cal Gas to perform their activities makes it unreliable to estimate when the park will reopen at this time.

San Remo Tennis Court Project:

- Tennis Court Lighting: There is a meeting occurring on February 26 with RALD Consulting to review their findings and designs for replacement lighting at these courts.
- Tennis Court Fence: It was previously reported that one post holding up the tennis court fencing adjacent to Via Triste was rusted out. Additional reviews indicate that a total of 8 posts need to be replaced. A bid for replacing these will be included in the tennis court project budget.
- Project Budget: Even though this project is necessary and cannot be delayed, a bid is being prepared to identify our costs. Funding for this unexpected project will come from Tennis court reserve account balances.

- Estimated Completion Date: Delays in scheduling construction by SCE, in defining the scope of the changes to the court lighting, and obtaining city approvals makes it unreliable to estimate when the court will open for play at this time.

Genoa Park Rehabilitation Project:

- The committee members reported that the new drinking fountain at Genoa is still part of the planned improvements. It will be installed at the same time as the San Remo Park play equipment.
- Vicki agreed to contact the playground contractor and secure a bid for design and purchase of new "Age Appropriate" signs that meet current safety requirements.

Antibes and Piazza Median Projects:

- Antibes and Piazza Lido Median Rehabilitation: The City has agreed to our Board approved landscape plans for these medians and on the idea of cost sharing.
- Project Budget: Two bids were requested, one from Lucco Construction and the other from ParkWest. A bid was received from Lucco only. Dave presented it the city. The City has asked that it be done in a different format. Lucco is in the process of revising the format to meet the City's standard.
- Median Encroachment Permits: Dave gave the City the information they requested on the medians and LICA. They will create the first draft of the master encroachment agreement. It should be available around the third week of March.

Bridge Entry:

Dave reported that the "Bridge Entry" committee has been formed. The committee members are: Buddy Richley, Chairperson; Barbara Wall, Secretary; Jeff Pense; Joelle Hamontree; Wayne Heck; Drew Ebright; Eric Henn; Dave Rahn.

The committee's goals are to meet as necessary to:

- Work with the City to upgrade landscape maintenance, propose landscape design improvements and develop an encroachment permit, or lease, defining which entity will govern and maintain the landscaped area bounded by the marina, the north side bulkheads, Via Antibes and the bridge.
- Consider the opinions of LICA's resident majority groups in this decision process to the greatest extent possible while complying with governmental regulations, budget limitations and other land use restrictions.
- Assess the ability to secure full, or partial, City funding for this project in CNB's 2020-2021 budget that starts on July 1, 2020.

Meeting Adjourned at 4:40 pm.

Next MCIC meeting will be held on March 23, 2020.
